no contest!

Six months ago, KRAB began broadcasting "Sunday" an original radio humor program emanating bi-weekly from the closets and dustbins of the Roachdale Radio Network. Sometime in June, the fifteenth program in the series will be broadcast and the Roachdale Principles will pack their wee whistles, their creaking doors and their Miltown off to Grays Harbor for the summer, returning to the Big Town only on days when all the dreadful peace and quiet gets them down.

If you like "Sunday", or hate it, or do the ironing to it, or even if you like oysters on the half shell (ugh!), you can win the NO CONTEST.

everybody wins!

Just tell us that you like it, hate it, don't listen to it, and (if you have room) why. Send it in and you win! Here's your prize: a copy of the scandalous, long-suppressed Sunday Poster. (By the Quaker Puffed Wheete Memorial Graphics Society)

Oh -- your thoughts will be used in formulating a new series for the fall.

Send them to:
